

Village of Warren in its last days.
School, band hall, other buildings seen in foreground.
New Warren Road curves from front to right.

Paper Mill Road
Bridge

Warren School
& Flagpole

The Warren Mill is hidden by the hill in the foreground.

Researched, Produced & Copyrighted by

HS
BC HISTORICAL SOCIETY
of BALTIMORE COUNTY

The mill town of Warren along the Gunpowder River, looking west.

Baltimore County Public Library Special Collections

Warren Bridge - looking up the Gunpowder River.

Researched, Produced & Copyrighted by

 HISTORICAL SOCIETY
of BALTIMORE COUNTY

Warren Village Homes. Gunpowder Falls on right.
Mill at distant right. Workers' houses on left.

Warren cottages, so-called Bungalows at Warren, built by Warren Manufacturing Co. during WW I.
The houses were saved and moved to Bosley Ave. in Cockeysville.
Main Street climbs hill toward Poplar Hill Road, on right.

View of Warren school,
from bridge over Gunpowder Falls.

Warren Public school on Warren Road in village